

Prep Questions, TEST Number 2, Part I

1. Provide a definition of GOVERNMENT.
2. Provide several examples as to how government can be a force for good.
3. Do all societies have governments? If so, why?
4. In a tribal society, where will government power probably reside?
5. What are "Thou shalt not types of laws?"
6. What are government services?
7. What is the taxing power of a government?
8. Define "power" in the context of governing.
9. What are public policies?
10. Identify and define the three major types of governmental powers.
11. Define "constitution."
12. Historically, constitutions are what?
13. Define "politics."
14. Identify some examples of "politics."
15. How can politics be good?
16. How can politics be bad?
17. What is a "state?"
18. How is France a state, but the "state" of Alabama is not?
19. Define population in the context of a state.
20. Define territory in the context of a state.
21. Define sovereignty in the context of a state.
22. Who might possess sovereign power within a state?
23. Define "government" in the context of a state.

24 through 35. NOTHING.

Go to number 36 on the next PDF.